March 17-18, 2009, Metropolitan Pavilion, 125 W 18th Street, New York City Show & Conference

Delivery of your bills of lading to MAXUM Expo Services does not signify that MAXUM Expo Services has assumed responsibility for your shipments. Whenever possible, a member of your staff should remain with your shipment until it is actually picked up for removal from the loading dock, at which time the trucker assumes responsibility for your merchandise. In every case, be sure to turn in your bills of lading to the Exhibitor Service Desk. Do not leave bills of lading in your booth. The information below is an outline of the most commonly asked questions regarding freight handling, often referred to as drayage. This can be the most costly part of exhibiting at conventions. We will try to explain what drayage is and how rates are established, which will help you save money by avoiding unnecessary surcharges.

What is "Freight Handling/Drayage"? - The term drayage is the moving of exhibit materials from one location to another. Whether you ship to the MES Warehouse or directly to show site, your materials still need to get to your booth location. Drayage services include the accepting of your material either at our warehouse or on show site, delivery to your booth, storage of empty containers during the show, returning empty containers at the close of the show, picking up your packaged materials, returning them to the dock and loading on the carrier of your choice.

Can I carry my own materials to my booth? - Any exhibitor may bring in his own materials providing that they can be hand carried by one person in one trip, without the use of dollies, hand trucks or any other equipment. If you choose to hand carry your exhibit you would not be permitted access to the loading dock area. The Use of Bellman will result in a minimum material handling charge

How are rates determined? - Drayage charges are based on a number of factors including Union labor rates, facility dock access, and the show schedule, to name just a few. MAXUM Expo Services is a Union company and therefore must use Union labor to move freight. These rates can vary from city to city.

Tips on how you can save money - Read the Freight Handling section of your service kit carefully. Be aware of any surcharges that may be assessed for special handling or late shipments. Pay special attention to deadline dates. If you ship in advance to our warehouse and your shipment arrives after the published deadline date, you may be assessed a surcharge. Crated materials are the easiest to unload, therefore, have the least expensive drayage charge. Loose, pad wrapped and uncrated materials require more labor time and therefore may be assessed a special handling fee. It may be cost effective for you to build crates for any portion of your exhibit that is not crated.

How is the weight of my shipment determined? All drivers should attain certified weight tickets for materials prior to arriving at the dock either at the warehouse or at show site. MAXUM Expo Services reserves the right to determine weights for all shipments for which weight tickets are not provided at the time of delivery. In cases where MAXUM Expo Services weighs the shipment, the exhibitor will be charged for double handling.

Small shipments versus large shipments. - Most all Service Contractors have a minimum of 200 lbs. per shipment. It is best to send your freight as one large shipment versus several small shipments. For instance, if you send one 45 lb. and one 55 lb. package separately, you are charged the minimum on each shipment. If you are planning to ship items from various locations you may want to ship them all to a central location then forward them to the Service Contractor's warehouse and/or show site. If you ship your materials in one shipment and the carrier makes multiple deliveries to MES, you will be charged for each delivery to our dock, regardless of whether or not the materials were shipped together as one shipment.

Advance shipments versus show site shipments. - In general it is best to ship your materials in advance to the "advance shipment" address. The charge for this may be slightly higher than shipping direct to show site but the benefit far outweighs the cost. You can (and should) confirm that we have received your materials well in advance of the show installation. If there is a problem it can be solved prior to the show. When shipping direct, if there is a problem there is seldom time to solve the problem prior to show opening. Another advantage to advance shipments is that your materials will be in your booth when you arrive and you can begin installation immediately, thus saving you time and frustration at show site.

Should I insure my exhibit? - The answer is YES! It is your responsibility to make sure your freight is insured from the time that it leaves your office until it returns. A rider to your existing policy can usually do this. Check with your insurance carrier for details.

Two of the most expensive mistakes made by exhibitors are: 1) shipping materials in several shipments, or 2) shipping via UPS or similar carriers that split a single shipment into several deliveries to our dock. Both can be very costly. Remember, each delivery incurs a minimum charge.

Always be aware of freight receiving deadlines. You will be assessed a late charge if your shipment arrives after the deadline date. Inform your shipper that all items must arrive prior to a specific date.
Always ship your materials crated – Loose or pad wrapped items are assessed special handling fees.

Make sure all materials are labeled properly to avoid any delivery delays. All pieces should have the recipient's name and address, the show name, your company name, and your booth number. Remove old labels after every show to avoid any future confusion. If you are shipping multiple pieces, label them as such: 1 of 4; 2 of 4; 3 of 4; 4 of 4, etc. We hope this helps you in budgeting for your material handling costs.

FREIGHT - RATES AND SHIPPING INSTRUCTIONS

Rates are based on incoming weight only. All weights are rounded off to the next cwt. Each shipment received is considered separately. Freight handling charges are the responsibility of the exhibitor.

Exhibitors are urged to carry all-risk floater insurance covering their materials against damage loss, and all other hazards from the time shipment is made prior to the show until shipments are received back after the show. This can generally be done by adding "riders" to existing insurance policies, often at no additional cost.

Empty container labels will be available at the Service Desk. Affixing the labels is the sole responsibility of the exhibitor or his representative. MES assumes no responsibility for removal of containers with old empty labels, mislabeled or valuables stored inside containers while containers are in storage.

Outbound shipping labels and bills-of-lading will be available at the Service Desk. Exhibitor or his representative must pack and label their exhibit material, turn in bill-of lading for each shipment at the Service Desk before leaving the Show. MES will route all shipments unless a designated carrier has been assigned. If the designated carrier fails to pick-up by the removal date of the Show, MES reserves the right to route exhibit material by an alternate carrier. As a result of re-routing or handling no liability will be assumed by MES.

LIMITS OF LIABILITY AND RESPONSIBILITY

- A. MES Expo Services shall not be responsible for damage to uncrated materials, material improperly packed, or concealed damage.
- B. MES Expo Services shall not be responsible for loss, theft, or disappearance of exhibitor's materials after same has been delivered to exhibitor's booth.
- C. MES Expo Services shall not be responsible for loss, theft, or disappearance of materials before they are picked up from exhibitor's booth for reloading after the Show. The Bill-of-lading covering outgoing shipments, which are furnished by MES Expo Services to exhibitor, will be checked at time of actual pick-up from booth and corrections made where discrepancies occur.
- D. MES Expo Services shall not be responsible for any loss, damage, or delay due to fire, Acts of God, strikes, lockouts or work stoppages of any kind or to any causes beyond its control.
- E. EXHIBITOR SAFETY

Standing on chairs, tables or other rental furniture is prohibited. This furniture is not engineered to support your standing weight. MAXUM Expo Services cannot be responsible for injuries, falls or damage caused by the improper use of rental furniture or equipment. If assistance is required in assembling your booth, please order labor on the MES Order Form and the necessary ladders and tools will be provided. Please assist in our efforts to provide a SAFE WORKING ENVIRONMENT for everyone.

All exhibitors must set up their displays within their booth boundaries. Booths extending into the aisle are subject to fire marshall jurisdiction and an exhibitor may be fined for aisle encroachment. The booth sizes stated are outside measurements. Allow a six inch leeway when installing hardwall displays.

Any person involved in moving equipment, supplies, or goods into or out of the facility is prohibited from consuming alcohol or being under the influence of alcohol.

Booth construction must conform to applicable building codes including electrical, plumbing etc. All work carried out on booths on-site must conform to facility regulations. Please contact the event's On-Site Safety Representative through your Show Manager for further information.

In the event of an emergency evacuation, security staff will help direct you to the nearest emergency exit, so be sure to familiarize yourself with the layout of the facility.

Use extreme caution if you are in show areas where forklifts and vehicle traffic are operating during move-in and move-out.

EXHIBITOR SECURITY

Do not assume the exhibit hall is secure. Each exhibitor must take responsibility for the security of all the items in his or her booth. MAXUM Expo Services, Show Management, facility personnel and the security contractor try to guard against theft and damage, but the ultimate burden falls on the exhibitor. Move-in and move-out are particularly vulnerable times. Be sure to carefully safeguard your exhibit materials.

Do not list the contents of crates and cartons on your shipping labels. A label that reads "27" color monitor" is an open invitation for thieves.

Never display "one-of-a-kind" items or irreplaceable samples unless someone is present at all times to keep an eye on them. For example, plasma screens are a high theft item. MES strongly recommends that you insure plasma screens, as NO liability for theft is assumed by show management, the facility or MAXUM Expo Services We also recommend that the shipping containers are not marked 'PLASMA SCREEN'.

Do not leave your booth unattended during the hectic and heavily populated move-in and move-out times.

Consider covering your exhibit with some sort of cloth at the close of each day. The psychological deterrent makes it more difficult for people to handle merchandise. Criminals often look for the easy mark first.

Business tools such as laptop computers, recorders, calculators, and give-away items are the things most often stolen. They should be guarded and stored safely at night.

Thieves will also take personal items such as purses, suit coats, and toolboxes. Do not leave personal items unprotected in your booth.

Never store items in containers marked "Empty".

Show management provides a 24-hour security system to prevent entry to the exhibit area by anyone not authorized. This security service does not guarantee exhibitors against loss. Nor does it imply an assumption of liability for an exhibitor's property by MAXUM Expo Services, Show Management, or their agents.

INSURE YOUR BOOTH! Your exhibit materials should be insured from the time they leave your facility until the time they return. Consult with your insurance agency about adding a rider to your existing policy.

2009 Business Continuity & Corporate Security

March 17-18, 2009, Metropolitan Pavilion, 125 W 18th Street, New York City Show & Conference

Trade show labor is completely unionized. Practically all the building trades -- carpenters, riggers, plumbers, electricians, stagehands, teamsters and others, serve it. The general contractors and all sub-contractors must work under union contracts. Therefore, union labor is required for all work in the exhibit area. Failure to recognize this relationship in every phase of exhibit planning can be irritating and expensive to exhibitors.

Union jurisdictions change from time to time, but in most cases the following applies:

- Position and leveling of all machinery and equipment - Teamsters
- Un-skidding/re-skidding and re-banding of machinery - Carpenters
- Un-crating and re-crating of machinery - Carpenters
- Display erection, dismantling and floor covering - Carpenters
- Draping and cloth installation - Carpenters
- Plumbing installation - Plumbers
- Material handling in and out of the building - Teamsters operate fork lifts for unloading and reloading of all display material, machinery and equipment
- Sweeping, cleaning, dusting - Porters
- Electrical installation – Electricians

It will be necessary for all exhibitors to use qualified union carpenters for exhibit work if the exhibit contains materials, which are subject to the jurisdiction of the carpenters. Carpenter labor has jurisdiction over the following:

- Erection and dismantling of exhibits, including simple fold-open displays requiring more than one (1) man, one (1) hour or two (2) men, one (1) hour total to set-up and/or dismantle.
- Installation and removal of floor covering, including carpet.
- Crating and re-crating of exhibit materials.

EXHIBITOR RIGHTS

Exhibitors have specified rights. For example, they are permitted to arrange their own manufactured products for display and related sales literature.

One (1) or two (2) full-time employees of the exhibiting company may work up to a total of one (1) hour erecting and/or dismantling their company's exhibit without the use of power tools. If this cannot be done in that amount of time, union labor must be used.

Any exhibitor may move material that can be hand carried by one person in one trip, without the use of dollies, hand trucks, or other mechanical equipment. When exhibitors choose to hand carry in accordance with the foregoing, they will not be permitted access to loading dock area(s). This means that if you cannot hand-carry your materials and must use the loading dock, you will be charged the specified material handling rates to have your vehicle unloaded and the materials delivered to your booth.

If you choose this option, the fee that you pay will cover your materials round-trip, and they will be delivered to the loading dock and loaded into your vehicle at the close of the show.

Generally, if an exhibitor's employees are members of the appropriate union, they are permitted to perform specified duties at the show; however, they must first register for permission with the local headquarters having jurisdiction in the New Jersey area. Secure clearances well in advance.
